Judge "Andy" Hamilton's Offer to Deposit $100,000 in Escrow Refused.

John A. McCall will tender his resignation from the presidency of the New York Life at a special seeting of the company's Board of Trustees to-mor

The authoritative source from which this fact comes also produced the information that McCall, true to the obigation which he had signed, has paid back to the New York Life the $25,000 which he gave to "Andy" Hamilton in the spring of 1904. It is known that Mcout Call was unable to pay off-hand in ed oach the total face of his note to the company. He gave a personal check for $55,000, and the remainder of the $225,000 is secured by his magnificent country The home Shedy Lawn, in New Jersey. Alexander E.
